SCOIL BHRÍDE NEWS

School leagues in hurling/camogie and football are now drawing to a close and the line-up for the finals has been determined. We have all thoroughly enjoyed the games so far and are looking forward to seeing which teams will be crowned champions. Best wishes to former pupil and Scoil Bhríde star Nicole Donoghue who is currently on duty with the Irish peace keeping forces in the Golan Heights on the Syrian border with Israel. We have no doubt she is doing a great job out there. The end of year school mass is on June 25th and will be followed by a performance on the tin whistle by all classes 1st to 6th. We are now two years into our traditional instrumental programme and can't wait to show case the progress we have made.
